Create A Space

CHAPTER 1

There is nothing that precedes the Personage of God.

(Do not even try to understand that spiritual truth with your natural-thinking mind . . . simply accept it.)

1. God begins by designing a Gauge of Measurement, for the whole of the Everlasting that lays ahead, and calls that instrument . . . Time.

(Broken down into segments of precisely calculated Expired . . . Operational . . . and Expected units of seconds, minutes, hours, days, weeks, months, years, decades, centuries, and millennia.)

2. Then, from within the depths of the whole of His own Personal Being, God utters forth a Space of Existence.

(Do not even try to understand how God did that with your natural-thinking mind . . . simply accept it. Note: The Universe did not magically exist first, and then God came along to visit it . . . [and there was no Big-Bang to start things off] . . . that is the Theory of Evolution's position . . . quite simplistic really, and most definitely erroneous.)

3. Next, within that newly established Space of Existence, God installs three operating Realms of Thought, Word, and Deed, in line with His chosen Foundational-Triune-Creational Format.

(Do not even try to understand that spiritual truth with your natural-thinking mind . . . simply see if you can identify the fourth Realm not contained within the inclusive Three. . . . Case closed.)

4. The Godhead Tri-unity Members follow up these initiating actions by purposing to mutually establish various Personal parameter issues for all Creative operational functioning.

(These issues have to do specifically with the Members of the Godhead, by mutual agreement, all occurring Before the Beginning, and are to become Eternally settled. They include position, order, responsibility, equality, reconciliation and redemption, and operational-law-establishment.)

5. The Measurement Gauge of Time is then released, and creation of the things needed to fill up the Space can commence (John 1:3).

“The Beginning” . . . has begun.

Fill Up That Space With Things

CHAPTER 2

In order to make any tangible “things” (John 1:3), there must be a basic set of tangible elements to work with. The four seemingly simple elements that we are familiar with . . . of Air, and Water, and Soil, and Fire are substantiated to be foundational.

Firstly, natural Air, as we know it, is not considered to be an unusual element at all. However, when that natural Air is infused with the Divine creative spark, it is no longer simply the normal kind of Air. So, with such “things” (John 1:3) as are absent of the aspect of Moral-Life, familiar, natural Air will suffice sufficiently for their construction requirements. But, when the aspect of active Moral-Life does come onto the scene, the story changes significantly.

Secondly, natural Water, as we all know it, is also not considered to be an unusual ingredient either, as far as elements go. Even though upon close scrutiny, the Water may be teeming with living organisms and activity, those organisms do not have a Moral-Life component in their functioning makeup. So, with such “things” (John 1:3) as are being creatively made, that are in need of the ingredient of Water, but not necessarily the addition of the Divine spark, the natural Water that we are familiar with will fill-the-bill in their construction. And, even when the Moral-Life factor does arrive, the Divine spark is not Scripturally stated as being utilized with this particular element.

Thirdly, the natural dust, ground, or Soil, as we know it, additionally is not considered as unusual or special either, in and of itself. Planets, comets, asteroids, space debris, and certain anomalies, all contain Soil as a major ingredient of their construct. In the formulation of various Solar Systems and Galaxies, the element of Soil shall be a major construction component. And when we reach the edge of Moral-Life emergence, the Divine spark shall become quite evident with the usage of this element.

And finally, the element of Fire, which is normally considered destructive in so many applications, is going to be found absolutely necessary in the construction of the stars that we observe, . . . which are intense balls of Fire, which are held together by the matrix of the Word of God. If you put enough stars together, you will mold yourself a Galaxy. If you scatter enough Galaxies with complimentary Solar Systems, planets, and various anomalies throughout the created Space that has recently been breathed forth, then you will have yourself a Universe.

For clarity and understanding, there are foundationally only Three Basic Creation Elements that are primarily utilized by the Most High God, in the building of this Universe . . . and they are going to be the Air, and the Water, and the Soil.

Evolutionists will postulate, based upon the test results received from their man-made machines, that this Universe is millions and millions, or even billions of years in age. These are fabricated numbers, of course, because even their machines cannot accurately pinpoint those sorts of large figures. So, those projections might just possibly be false. However, these kinds of blatant erroneous statements of fact, seem to go globally unchallenged within this reprobate, God-hating day and age, especially by the Christian community, whom one might think should know better. As a side note to this thought: just how many young children are going to be adversely affected, educationally, on a planetary, global scale, by these unchallenged falsehoods from Two-Dimensional, dead in their sins, scientific thinking individuals?

The Bible, on the other hand, the Immutable Counsel of the Word of God, the one book on the whole of this planet that does not lie, states that the Personage of God can “hasten my word to perform it” (Jeremiah

1:12). And additionally, it adds, “his word runneth very swiftly” (Psalms 147:15). In light of those stated truths, it is not at all unusual for God to be able to make something, that seems to be much, much, older than it really is, or that we might think it is, in a relatively short period of Time. At the very least, we should consider the question. . . . Who’s report shall we believe?

May we take just a few moments and consider that we are dealing with a Real Person when we are dealing with the One whom we call God? Simply because He is the Creator God of all things, does not make Him any less of a Real Person than you or me.

And, may we consider as well, that He is not a Real Person who is so BIG (physically speaking) that our minds cannot even conceive of the size of His Being. Power and Ability are NOT necessarily equated with size or stature.

Special Notation: Jesus of Nazareth, as a Man, was probably around 6’ feet tall . . . so why should the Pre-Incarnate, Second Person of the Godhead, the Word, be so unreasonably huge before His acquisition of an Earth-Suit . . . and then have to reduce Himself to a tiny, minuscule size, in order to fit into the Suit and become one of the very creatures that He created specifically to be just like Himself?

May we also consider that His written Word reveals unto us that our God has a Father's heart, and desires to have His own personal Family . . . just the same as we do.

So, having a longing for a Family . . . and presently enjoying, immensely, whatever the small amount of time that Human Beings are willing to spend with Him . . . does it really make any sense for our Creator God to create an entire Universe, void of any Moral-Life, and then wait billions and billions of years in order to create a creature that He shall bring forth “in” His own “image” . . . and “after” His own “likeness” to fulfill His Personal desire? (Genesis 1:26) Hello?

This author would like to propose the notion that this Universe, Time-wise, is less than 50,000 years old.

* * *

One of the reasons that we have so much trouble wrapping our brains around spiritual truth is because of the reality of Immensity. Thinking about what it took to create an entire Universe can be quite overwhelming.

As a single example: according to Man's calculations, light travels at 186,000 miles per calculated second. Should that be the case, then light goes 11,160,000 miles in only one minute of Time. That means that light travels 669,600,000 miles in just one short hour. And subsequently, it travels 16,070,400,000 miles in only one day. So, in one entire year's calculation of Time, light has traveled 5,865,696,000,000 miles of distance.

Since scientists declare that this Universe is approximately 14,000,000,000 light years across, (that is if it's not continuing to expand) that makes the current size of our Universe . . . that our approximately 6' foot high in size, Creator God has made, to be 82,119,744,000,000,000,000,000 miles from end to end . . . if there is an end. Immensely overwhelming when you stop to think about it, wouldn't you say?

The main point of our exercise . . . is to understand that desire, and purpose, and size, and volume, do not always fit into as nice and neat of a package as we would like them to . . . but that does not change reality.

And we are not attempting to denigrate, or demean, the magnificence of the Existence Creator God of our Universe. His Majesty is unsurpassed without question. But He is still a Real Person, and we are purposing to utilize the very declarations, which He has made within His Word, to substantiate our claims.

We serve a God who has brought us forth, with the purist of motives, out of unadulterated Love.

We serve a God who is a Real Person that we can interact with, by His design, and not some overwhelming obscure Being who is beyond our comprehension.

We serve a God who desires us to be His very own, jump up into His lap and hug His neck, sons, and daughters.

We serve a God who deserves our respect and honor and loyalty, not because it is lawfully mandated, but because of whom He is.

We serve a God who will ultimately be the Father and CEO of His own Family Business . . . with Jesus of Nazareth, His Only Begotten Son as the President of the Corporation, along with all of the other adopted (Romans 8:15) Family sons and daughters as employees . . . who shall be assisted in all that they do by the never leaving and never forsaking Holy Spirit of Truth (Hebrews 13:5).

A Universal, Family Affair, lovingly overseeing a hustling, bustling, active Universal playground for creatures, which are the uniquely varied expressions of pure Love, is what lies ahead.

* * *

This Universe is still a rather young exposé of absolute Life, Light, and Love (John 1:4; I John 1:5; 4:8). A “hastened” (Jeremiah 1:12), created playground, which has been filled with exciting Life-toys, for the creatures of the Most High to play with, starting within the testing playpen area of planet Earth . . . and then, within the process of created Time, the extended playground has become fully populated with wondrous playmate Holy Angels and

Other Creatures, in addition to the recent addition of the New Creation children of our loving Heavenly Father.

Hastened Living Words from an Almighty Existence Creator have set the stage for an Everlasting display of increase and abundance of Moral-Life and animated creation. May we arise from our whirlpool of mediocrity and seize the opportunity to plunge into the knowledge of who we are in Christ Jesus, right now! Fully expect the best from our God who does not disappoint, and rejoice in what He will delight to do for you.

Create Some Creatures To Play With Those Things

CHAPTER 3

Within a relatively young Universe, and with an initial new Moral-Life project of design . . . it is going to be a good thing to have some responsive, independently thinking, desirous to serve, living creatures, with which to begin to pour out your love upon, and utilize them to jump-start the populating of the Great Expanse.

However, wisdom would dictate, right at the outset, that this new Moral-Life project needs to be set within some parameters of Probationary oversight. It is extremely important to determine if the initial creatures to be given a Free Will, are going to choose to live up to all of the desires and expectations that the benevolent Existence Creator has for them . . . or whether decisions shall be made to take a separate path, and attempt to re-establish, according to their own expectations, the issues that come with granted freedom. A determined Probationary Period should fill-the-bill for this purpose. (Please be aware that Foreknowledge is fully cognoscente of what the outcome will be.) However, Reproductive-Permission, designed for Species increase, for original, first-round, Moral-Life creatures shall be withheld until we determine how this project is going to go.

* * *

Currently, there is an excellent documentary video on the market called “The Privileged Planet,” which details how precisely placed this particular planet called Earth is within this spacious scheme of Universal production. So, considering the scientific evidence revealed within that video, and for the sake of our informational treatise, might we understand God’s decision to start the First Probationary Project right here on planet Earth.

To Start With:

Demon creatures, alive and well on this Earth, even though they are not visible to the naked eye today, are very real, nasty, foul, little critters that revel in the torturing of Human Beings, either by harassing them from the outside of their physical Terrestrial bodies (1 Corinthians 15:40), or by tormenting their victims via living on the inside of them.

Credible testimonies from well-known individuals, such as Dr. Kenneth Hagin and Dr. Lester Sumrall, having been privileged to see into the invisible Realm of the Spirit, tell us of these heinous, pesky creatures looking like monkeys, or sloths, or snakes, or dogs.

Now, before the production of the feature film called The Chronicles of Narnia, which is based on a book series by C. S. Lewis, the Human mind might have had some difficulty in picturing intelligent, morally-knowledgeable, talking, animalistic creatures . . . even though the Bible states that both a serpent (Genesis 3:1), and a donkey (Numbers 22:30) spoke to Human Beings in days gone by. However, since the release of that film, the idea of an intelligent animal, thinking, reasoning, and talking, does not seem to be all that foreign. So . . . what exactly are the very real creatures that we refer to as Demons, and where do they come from?

In short, Demons are the spirit and soul residue of the intelligent, Free Will, Moral-Life individuals that first inhabited planet Earth. They are Biblically known of as Other Creatures (Romans 8:39), and they lived and worked and played upon planet Earth before any other Moral-Life persons that we know of. They functioned as a complete Society, which built cities (Jeremiah 4:26) and gathered themselves into nations (Isaiah 14:12). The Bible tells us that God did not originally create this planet “without form, and void” (Genesis 1:2; Jeremiah 4:23) as is often spoken to be the case. Rather, He “formed the Earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited:” (Isaiah 45:18).

So, in other words, Earth's original ordained purpose was to support Moral-Life individuals that God would creatively bring forth. The Earth was specifically designed for . . . an introductory class of Moral-Life creation . . . set within a Probationary Plan . . . with Eternal-desire expectations.

It is suggested that these creatures were animalistic in their appearance because the Bible hints at that possibility (Habakkuk 1:14), and because the residue of their personage has always been witnessed as being animalistic.

We are now able to view the working of the Human Being Society that we are a part of today, and are capable of imagining that a previous First Society might not have been all that different from our own. It is, after all, the same planet, with the same sky, and the same land, and the same water . . . using the same Sun, and the same Moon, and able to observe the same Stars. And, there was even an Animal Compliment to this First animalistic Society, which we also have a residue of substantiated evidence of as well . . . and today we know of those Animal Compliment creatures, as dinosaurs.

Other Creatures lived in homes, held occupations, traveled from one location to another, interacted socially, and worshiped the One True God (Ezekiel 28:18). They were not given Reproductive-Permission for Eternal reasons but may have been created en masse, or on a one-at-a-time basis, according to the Creator God's personal pleasure.

However, this much is certain . . . Other Creatures did, and do exist, and they were intelligent, and they did function as a Society . . . and something occurred which brought about their destruction, because all that we have left of them, on this planet, is the residue of their spirit and their soul.

As a note: It is thought by some, that Demonic entities are somehow Fallen Angels. However, this cannot be the case, as they are two separate Species of creation. Angels . . . all Angels . . . can fly. Even sinful Fallen Angels can fly . . . but Demons cannot fly (Matthew 12:43). They must catch the bus, or ride on airplanes, or catch the train, or ride in cars. They are the invisible hitchhikers within their movement endeavors upon this Earth. Contained within every personal report of their viewed activities, is the notation that they are found to be Earthbound.

Angels . . . whether Holy Angels or Fallen Angels are incapable of possessing, or of entering into, any Human Being, because they have a Celestial body (1 Corinthians 15:40) of their own. Demons no longer have a body, so they desire to live within yours and continue to promote their heinous, foul maneuvers, through you. Their Terrestrial physical bodies were destroyed by floodwaters, when Judgment occurred at the end of the First Probationary Period (Genesis 1:2; Psalms 104:6; Jeremiah 4:23).

Angels hold various positions and ranks among their constituency. Demons have no ranking, and are simply the residue of the previous inhabitants of planet Earth. Similar to the Human Being Creation Category, at this particular point in Time, they occupy only this planet Earth, and they do not fly anywhere else within the Space arena, and they continue to be overtly occupied with various life activities relegated to the world upon which they live.

Special Notation: Any being that has a body, cannot enter into any other being that has a body . . . even God. Neither the Father in Heaven nor the Holy Spirit of God have bodies. The Only Begotten Son of God, Jesus Christ of Nazareth, is the only Member of the Godhead who has a body (Colossians 2:9), so he is not able to possess or to enter into any other Human Being. But the Holy Spirit of God can enter in . . . because He does not have a body. Like the Father, He has a shape (John 5:37), and He has a form (Philippians 2:6), and His shape and His form combined grant unto Him a likeness (Genesis 1:26) . . . but He does not have a body.

First of all, the three stated differences between Angels and Demons mentioned previously are not the only areas that substantiate that Angels and Demons (or Other Creatures) are not of the same Species of creation, but they will do for our purposes of explanation.

Secondly, Angels are magnificent creatures of love, vocationally gifted, who are willfully committed to a ministration of servitude to both God . . . and then in these days in which we live, to Man as well.

When we consider which Species of Moral-Life creation the Lord of Hosts brought forth first . . . there is not any Bible clarity. However, common sense wise, the Angelic Category Species would seem to prevail over the Other Creature Category Species, because Angels are vocational.

Consider if you will . . . the Creator God of Non-Existence exhales an expanse of Space from within His Being and then begins to occupy that new Space with things (John 1:3). From the things that are brought forth, He needs to develop and establish a Headquarters, from which He can continue with further operations of creativity. He chooses a particular planet, which resides within a particular galaxy, which resides within a particular quadrant of the new Space, and then must construct a real city for personal occupation and business endeavors (Hebrews 11:10).

Because He is God, He can create workers to accomplish the hands-on construction of foundational requirements. And this is where the Angelic Category Species of Moral-Life creation might have come in.

Angels are a specific Species of Creation Category, which is different from the Other Creature Creation Category.

All Angels have Celestial bodies (1 Corinthians 15:40), which give unto them the capacity of flight; however, they vary widely in appearance depending upon their vocational functions.

Some Angels have six wings (Isaiah 6:2), and some Angels have four wings (Ezekiel 10:21). Some Angels have two wings, and some Angels do not have any wings at all (Hebrews 13:2).

Angels have a ranking order within their constituency of . . . Archangel, Seraphim, Cherubim, Watchers, Living Creatures, Beasts, Common Angels, and Strangers Unawares (Hebrews 13:2).

Angels are probably the ones who tweaked various aspects of things (John 1:3) that were being brought forth to fill up this newly exhaled Space.

Angels are probably the ones who built the City of New Jerusalem upon the planet Heaven (Hebrews 11:10).

Angels are probably the ones who built other cities upon planet Heaven as well, in the which they live themselves, and are charged with the raising and tutoring of aborted fetuses and early-death Human Beings, under the age of accountability, whose parents are in a Blood Covenant relationship with the Creator God (1 Corinthians 7:14), until those Human Being children reach a decision-making level within their lives, for Christ.
